

King's Cross

Canal

Festival

17&18 June

12-5pm

FREE

Camley St Bridge

ENTRANCE

Gasholder Park

St Pancras Cruising Club

Camley St Natural Park

Central Saint Martins

Granary Sq

Canalside Steps

Skip Garden & Viewing platform

Spiritland "Bagelys"

Handyside St

Stable St

Goods Way

York Way

York Way

King's Cross Station

Canal Museum

Beautiful barges, pop up performances, canal cruises, activities, vintage fashion, lovely food and more along the towpath

King's Cross

King's Cross Canal Festival

17&18 June

12-5pm

FREE

Follow our route on the map to make sure you don't miss a thing!

Food and drink:

Floating cafes and bars,
Prosecco Bubble Bike Bar,
Seafood on the shore,
Italian Arancini & Roasticini,
Rum Shack, Ice delights,
Tea Bar, Coffee Bike
& more

Granary Square

Life Boat: The Slowest Ride on Earth;
A participatory installation in a hammock boat under the trees

Bureau of Silly Ideas: Cheeky plant pots pop up around the place

The Merry Maker: Peddling personalised poems on his trike (Sun only)

Canalside Steps & towpath

Collectif and then: Captivating Circus Cabaret on the Canal, from the UK's only floating circus boat

Anna Bruder: Help create the floral bridge with handcrafted paper flowers & floral headpieces

Word on the Water: The London Bookbarge with live music on the roof

Rosie-the Smallest Canal Museum: Learn traditional decorative narrowboat painting techniques

Village Butty: Games, acoustic music, homemade ginger beer & nonsense poems aboard the floating village hall

Canal and River Trust's boat Jena: Canal information & how to get involved aboard Jena

Frocks a Float: Floating vintage dress emporium

Gasholder Park and towpath

Circumference: Chinese pole & other circus shows, drop in workshops

Boat Trips: Cruising up the canal to Camden (£5 adults, kids go free, runs every 30 mins)

Open Garden Squares: Green fingered gardeners can unearth the secrets of transforming the iconic Gasholder Park with talks from Architects and Landscapers (1-3pm)

Central Saint Martins: Intimate pop up performances from emerging artists (sat only)

Around the route

St Pancras Cruising Club: Tea & homemade cake on top of the Victorian Waterpoint with amazing views & historical talks, live music in canalside garden (Sat only)

Skip Garden: Buzz around the Hives and the worlds artiest chicken coop and cafe at the Urban Garden (Sat & Sun 10am-5pm)

Camley Street Natural Park: Dragonfly arts and crafts with the Dragonfly Detectives (Sat only 12-4pm). Discover the wild oasis and Wildwood Cafe (Sat & Sun 10am-5pm)

London Canal Museum: Discover how the canal played a part in the first ice cream! (10am-4.30pm)

Produced by King's Cross in partnership with the Canal and River Trust, Open Garden Squares Weekend, St Pancras Cruising Club, Skip Garden (Global Generation) and Camley Street Natural Park (London Wildlife Trust)

kingscrossN1C f kingscrosscouk

Some shows and activities have limited capacity so head down early to avoid disappointment. All activities and shows are running through the afternoon. Turn up and drop in. All events are free (unless marked otherwise).

kingscross.co.uk/whats-on